Office of Continuing Medical Education—Disclosure Form

As a sponsor accredited by the ACCME, The American Cancer Society, Inc., must insure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its individually sponsored or jointly sponsored educational activities. All authors of articles associated with a sponsored activity are expected to disclose to the activity audience any significant financial interest or other relationship (1) with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in an article and (2) with any commercial supporters of the activity. (Significant financial interest or other relationships can include such things as grants or research support, employee, consultant, major stock holder, member of speaker's bureau, etc.) The intent of this disclosure is not to prevent a speaker with a significant financial or other relationship from making a presentation, but rather to provide listeners with information on which they can make their own judgments. It remains for the audience to determine whether the author's interests or relationships may influence the presentation with regard to exposition or conclusion.

b. If Yes, do you (or your spouse or partner) have any significant financial interest or other relationship with the manufacturer(s) of any of the products or provider(s) of any of the services you intend to discuss? Yes___ No___

c. If Yes, you have indicated that you, your spouse, or your partner has a relevant financial relationship. In the space below, provide four items of information about each of your financial relationships:

1. Commercial Interest: The name of each proprietary entity producing health care goods or services, with the exception of non-profit or government organizations and non-health care related companies, with which you or your spouse/partner have, or have had, a relevant financial relationship within the past 12 months. For this purpose, we consider the relevant financial relationships of your spouse or partner that you are aware of to be yours.

2. What was received: What you or your spouse/partner received from the commercial interest (e.g., salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honorarium, and ownership interest (stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit). The ACS does not want to know how much you received.

3. For what role? The role you or your spouse/partner played to receive the salary, goods, honorarium, etc.: employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership, or other activities. (please specify)

4. Direct/Indirect: Whether the relationship is/was direct or indirect.
